The lining is faced with crepe to a pointed yoke depth, and adorned with medallions of lace. The full fronts are tucked and applied to outline the yoke. The tucks are stitched down about half way, and provide stylish fullness over the bust, which blouses at the belt.

A plain crepe collar is finished with a lace protector. The full portion of the sleeve is tucked to correspond with the front of the waist and attached to the lower edge of a fitted cap. It is gathered at the wrist and arranged on a cuff, over which it droops stylishly at the back. Bands of lace trim the yoke, caps and cuffs.

Attractive blouses in this mode may be made of crepe de Chine, Lansdowne, albatross, veilling, silk muslin, liberty satin or any soft, clinging fabric, with velvet, satin or Persian panne for trimming.

To make the waist in the medium size will require one and three-fourths yards of material forty-four inches wide. The pattern, No. 884, is cut in sizes for misses of 12, 14 and 16 years.

Misses' Five-Gore Flare Skirt, No. 8864— It can scarcely be said that flounce skirts are going out, but just now the fashion world is accepting plain skirts with much favor. They must, however, have a sheath effect from belt to knee, and that decided flare which is necessary in all stylish models.

Such a skirt is iliustrated here, developed a dark red panne zibeline, with trimming ands of black moire. It is made with five ores—a narrow front and sides, with wide acks fitted smoothly around the waist and its mithout darks.

GERMANS GIVE BACK

Restaurador Now in Command of Commander Chalbaud at Puerto Cabello.

REBELS ARE NEAR CARACAS.

Their Army in Sorry Plight and Apparently Not Much Disposed to Attack the Government Troops Close at Hand.

Puerto Cabello, Feb. 23.-The Venezuelan gunboat Restaurador, which was captured by the Germans, was handed over by them to the Venezuelan authorities here to-day. At 11 o'clock this morning Commander Chalbaud of this port, accompanied by an interpreter, and the German Commodore, Scheder, went on board the Restaurador, which is now lying in this harbor, in order to effect the delivery of the ship. At 11:30 o'clock the German flag was lowered, the German cruiser, Vineta, firing a salute as the colors were brought down.
At 2 o'clock this afternoon the Restaurador hoisted the Venezuelan flag, and was then handed over to Commander Chalbaud from the advance post of the Governores.

The revolutionists present a sad spectacle, being almost naked and practically without provisions. General Rolando is still at Guarenas with about 1,200 men.

It was reported yesterday among the revolutionists that they were preparing to attack the Government troops, but no movement was made. Every day's delay brings the cause of the revolution nearer to its end. President Castro intends sending troops to Rio Chico to-morrow from Barcelona in order to cut off the retreat of the revolutionists.

Reports have been current that the revo-lutionists intended to attack La Guayra and Puerto Cabello during the carnival, but the Government officials are in no way alarmed.

BIG THEATRICAL WAR NOW SEEMS ASSURED.

With the Stair & Hamlin Houses Open to Them, the Independents Can Play in Almost Every City.

New York, Feb. 23.-Quite apart from his success as a histrionic figure, "The Earl of Pawtucket" has created an immense stir in theatrical circles lately. The announce ment that, in spite of the really great success which this play has scored, "The Earl" has received his walking papers and will be obliged to get out of the Madison Square Theater in three weeks' time, has not only driven Manager Kirk La Shelle root and branch over to the Independent Booking Agency, but "The Earl" will have take to the convenient stands for a couple to take to the one-night stands for a couple of weeks and will then find shelter at the Manhattan, where he will be permitted to run until the Fourth of July if he wants to. This instance simply demonstrates anew the extraordinary conditions which are pre-vailing in theatrical managerial circles just at present, and coming just at this time, when Weber & Fields, with their new West when Weber & Fields, with their new West End Thester, have joined hands with the in-dependents, and Stair & Hamlin, with their enormous chain of theaters, are throwing their doors open to the free-lance com-panies, the forces are slowly, but surely, massing themselves for one of the big-gest theatrical fights that have ever taken place.

Wagenhals & Kempner and Oscar Ham-merstein are also likely to take a most imknows the doughty Mr. Hammerstein is fully aware that he would rather fight than at.
With the Stair and Hamlin theaters open

With the Stair and Hamlin theaters open to them, the independents can play in almost every important city in the Union. With a chance of getting open time in the big cities, managers who have heretofore not dared to make productions for the past few seasons, knowing that, no matter how great their success might be, all their profits would be eaten up by the long railroad jumps they would be compelled to make—these managers, we say, will now take heart of grace and make productions on an elaborate scale. orate scale.

And the more productions, the more novelties for playgoers to enjoy. Before this season is over the war will be waging in real earnest.

EAST SIDE NEWS.

CAPTURED GUNBOAT NEGROES KILL AND THEN ROB RUSH CITY SALOONKEEPER.

> Sons of Phillip Frey Find His on Barroom Floor With Throat Cut and Pockets Rifled.

Phillip Frey, 45 years old, the proprietor of a saloon in Rush City, the negro settle ment south of East St. Louis, was murdered in his saloon Sunday night. It is believed that the crime was com-mitted by negroes for the purpose of rob-bery. When he was searched, Frey had no bery. When he was searched, Frey had no money on him.

Frey was a white man and lived with his two young sons in the rear of his salcon building. About 10 o'clock Sunday night the boys heard sounds of scuffling in the salcon, but thought that it was only a fight among negro patrons of the bar and did not venture into the salcon for an hour or more afterwards. They found their father lying on the floor in front of the bar. His throat was cut.

The boys tried to stanch the flow of blood lying on the floor in front of the bar. His throat was cut.

The boys tried to stanch the flow of blood and one of them went to the door and called for help. Neighbors responded and Doctor Linder was summoned. He arrived with Domhoff's ambunance and, after an examination, said that the man had died almost immediately after the wound was inflicted.

Doctor Linder thought that a razor was the weapon which had been used in the assumt on the saloonkeeper, as the cut was crean and very deep, passing through the man's neck to the spinal column.

An examination of the dead man's clothing brought to light the fact that his pockets had been rifled. No money was found in the cash drawer, and it is known that he always did a good business on Sunday nights.

Frey's body was removed to Domhoff's nights.
Frey's body was removed to Domhoff's morgue, where Coroner McCracken will hold the inquest this morning.

CROW MAY BE APPOINTED JUDGE East St. Louis Attorney Indorsed as

Successor to Judge Schaefer.

Much interest has been taken among the attorneys of the St. Clair County bar in the appointment of a successor to Circuit Judge M. W. Schaefer, who retires this week to enter private practice.

There are several candidates, but it is believed the plum will fall to G. A. Crow of East St. Louis.

Mr. Crow, it is argued by his friends, has always been a consistent Republican, and if the indorsements of the leaders of the Yates crowd of the East Side count for anything, it is believed that he will secure the appointment.

It was generally rumored yesterday that Governor Yates had informed several of the East Side politicians that he would appoint Mr. Crow. Successor to Judge Schaefer.

dam D. Koch Marries Miss Grac Appelbe, Sister of His Brother's Wife, Who Also Eloped.

Adam D. Koch of No. 1221 Glasgow ave ue and Miss Grace E. Appelbe, who lives at the Hotel Charlemont, Washington and Vandeventer avenues, imitated the example of their brother and sister yesterday after-noon by going to Clayton and getting married without the knowledge or consent of either of their parents.

married without the knowledge or consent of either of their parents.

About six years ago, the bride's sister surprised her parents by silpping away and marrying Hugo Koch, a brother of Adam Koch, the bridegroom.

Mrs. Koch is the daughter of John Appelbe, a retired capitalist, who is visiting in Philadelphia. She decided to take advantage of her father's absence, as he was opposed to her marriage on account of her youth. She gave her age as 18 to the marriage license clerk. Koch is 23 years old, and his parents thought that he, too, was too young to marry.

Mr. Appelbe has been in Philadelphia for several weeks. With no one to watch her, his daughter had no trouble making preparation for the marriage.

Their home, at No. 5223A Fairmount avenue, has already been furnished, and they will go to housekeeping immediately.

Koch lived in Central, near Clayton, until two years ago. The marriage ceremony at that place vesterday was performed by Judge Fred L. Kerth.

Brilliant Glow at Apex Occurre While Celebration of Washington's Birthday Was in Progress.

The first feeling, however, turned to wonder when it was observed that instead of being a tongue of fire the entire capstone of the monument appeared to be one mass of brilliant light, so strong and so dazzling that it was not pleasant to look at it for many seconds with the naked eye. The light was caused by the sun shining on the aluminum apex of the monumen and it was considered peculiarly appropriate that the reflection should have been ington's birthday anniversary is being cele-brated. The reflection can only be seen when the sun is at just the proper angle, and only one or two days during the year.
